Go East by Way of St. Louis. In these days of railroad competition the wise traveler selects his route before leaving home. In almost every instance he desires to reach his destination as speedily as Figure Pariste Through Line from the West to the Kast. passed by any other line in the country. Everything con sected with the Missouri Pacific R. R., in first class, and the deption of the Miller Platform and Westinghouse Air Brake, together with Pullman Sleepers, and Reclining Chair Coaches, render a trip over the line perfectly safe and pleasant. Passengers from all parts of the West, by taking its Express Trains at Kansas City, Leavenworth, Atchison, and other prominent cities, are landed in St. Louis at seasonable hours merning and evening, and is ample time to make direct connection with all railroads for every point in the North, East and South. Particular information, with maps, time tables, &c., may be had at the various "Through Ticket" affices in the West, or upon personal of written application to G. H. To Subscribers-Particular Notice.

After the first of January next-but a short time distant -publishers will be required, under the new postal law. to pre-pay the postage on every one of their papers sent outside of the County in which they are published. At the rate fixed, the postage on the Chief will be about 10 cents a year, which we shall have to pre-pay. We propose to pre-pay the postage, without additional charge, on all papers paid for in advance, at the rate of $2 per year. But subscribers will at once see that we cannot afford to send the paper on credit, and pre-pay the postage too-they can not reasonably expect it. Ten cents is an ineignificant sum on a single paper, but on hundreds, it counts up. This law will necessarily do away with the newspaper credit system at least, on papers sent outside of the County.

To be fully prepared for the new order of things, we shall, in a short time, enclose bills to all subscribers coming under this rule, showing their indebtedness up to the mit promptly-and of course, if they wish to continue the paper, (as we trust they all will,) they will know what adoual amount to send, for the time they want it. Those who fail to respond will be dropped from the list, as we cannot afford to send the paper on credit, and pay for the

A Sensation in Troy.

Last Saturday afternoon, about the time the hack went out to meet the northern bound train, suddenly the whole lown, as if by concert, seemed to be on the qui ries. Know ing winks, private consultations, and incredulous smiles, were everywhere the rule. Somebody would hurry to communicate some important news to somebody else, but that somebody else would inform his intormant that he already know it. Everybody seemed to know it, and to have found it out in the space of ten minutes. Some such collequies as these could be beard on every hand :

"Don't that best the d-I !" "Yes, it beats h-l. I'd never have thought it."

Tve got some news. I'll bet a hundred dollars you can't uess it in a thousand guesses."
"I'll bet you that I know all about it. But don't it beat

"They say Ross has got back from Washington. Is that "Yes, and now there will be b-l to pay."

"Why, what's the matter !" Just you wait a few hours. There's a hen on." Well, I never thought it of the little case. When and

"How the dickens did they manage to keep it still s ong I"
"Well, only a few knew of it, and they premised not t

"And didn't the folks know anything of it!" here will be the d-I to pay."

"Where have they gone to now!" "Oh, they've just gone up the country, till the excite-nent is over. They fired the fuse, and then hurried out of the way of the explosion."

But we could fill our paper with remarks of this nature

all of which has no meaning to the uninitiated reader. All this excitement resulted out of a fact made known publicly for the first time Saturday afternoon, and which may e be stated in the following words, to wit: MARKED.-At St. Joseph, September 30, 1874, by J. T. Wilson, Mr. Ross Stungts to Miss Axxie Wood

A GOOD MACHINE, WHOSE PROPRIETORS HAVE SOURS. ubscriber, B. V. Ransom, of Salem, Nebraska, who has been engaged, during the past season, as General Western Agent for the sale of the celebrated Marsh Harvester. manufactured by Emerson & Co., at Rockford, Ill. This is one of the best, completest, simplest, and cheapest reaping machines ever munufactured, and were introduced into sas and Nebraska some five years ago. The more it is tried, the more popular it has become, and now holds its own against all other machines. Mr. Kanson's sales in Kansas and Nebruska, during the past season, amounted te over $40,000. But we did not start out so much with tors. The muchines were sold on a few months credit, and se ath County where this paper is published, will get Mr. Ransom is now around making collections. Emerson & Co., appreciating the state of the times out here, have given him direction to distress or push no man in making collections; but when he finds any man unable to pay, to "I be published in this paper, that all may know where secure the debt by note, and give him all necessary time in Town." the instruments may be seen. The same offer are to first to pay it. They feel that they are able to wait rather patronage of the farmers. If all implement manufacturers were like them, there would be little need among farmers for Granges for their self-protection.

YOUTHFUL PIETT ASD WISDOM.-Another convincing roof of the good effect produced by the influence of Sab both schools, was illustrated by an incident which lately happened in a strictly moral and religious city in this County, in the case of assault and battery between Mr. S. and Mr. F. The assault happened on Sunday. Mr. S. had stated in Court, that he had prepared his children for church and Sabhath school, and to corroborate his stateent, the attorney for Mr. S. thought proper to call upon the stand the son of Mr. S., (the gentleman who received the castigation,)-little Johnnie, a precoclous youth of eight years. Objection was raised by the opposing comp understood the nature of an oath, when his Honor, the Justice, questioned the pious little lad, with the following

"Well, bub, do you know what it is to swear !" "Well, what would happen to you, or what would you e, if you should swear to a lie!

"I'd be a G-d d-d little son of a b-h!" promptly replied the young hopeful. This laconic reply satisfied all, that the witness was competent, and under the instruction of a wise parent; and the breaker of the law was fined one dollar.

AID FOR THE WEST .- A meeting of ladies was held at the Higby House, last Wednesday, and a committee organized to solicit and collect contributions for the sufferers in the Western part of the State. The committee will at once go

Articles of second-hand clothing, wheat, coru potatoes, or anything to eat or wear, will be acceptable. Tracy & Parker have offered to grind all wheat and corn free, that is contributed for the destitute; and the rail-roads carry such supplies free of charge.
